DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 37 of U.S. Patent No. 6,749,624. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claim is merely broader.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3739

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuller et al. (5,968,033). Fuller et al. disclose a method for inducing the formation of collagen in a selected collagen containing tissue site beneath a skin surface, comprising:

providing an energy source (laser # 20);

producing energy from the energy source;

cooling through the skin surface (by flowing a cooling fluid around the ball lens and onto the surface of the skin), wherein a temperature of the skin surface is lower than the selected collagen containing tissue site; and delivering energy from the energy source through the skin surface to the selected collagen containing tissue site for a sufficient time to induce collagen formation in the selected collagen containing tissue site, and inherently forming no more than a second degree burn on the skin (col. 2, lines 55-58 and claim 22);

and creating a tissue effect (skin remodeling or smoothing or tightening and col. 3, line 62-col. 6, line 22, col. 10, line 49-col. 11, line 28 and claim 23).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chess et al. (6,475,211) discloses a method for wrinkle reduction by application of laser energy and provides a skin cooling means via compressed air (see claim 20 and col. 1, lines 18-35).
